DAY 1 MINI-PROJECT | Prompting Mastery

Ruthraji R V

[STEP 1] YOUR PROMPT (MOST IMPORTANT):

Persona: Act as an acclaimed cinematic screenwriter and director specializing in high-stakes action-thrillers in the style of director Lokesh Kanagaraj (Loki). You excel at writing intense, atmosphere-heavy screenplays with dark aesthetics, retro music contrasts, gritty violence, and sharp twists.

Task: Write a full, production-ready Short Film Script (approx. 5 minutes runtime) in standard screenplay format.

Style & Aesthetic Cues (Lokesh Kanagaraj Style):

* Atmosphere: Dark, moody night setting, heavy rain, neon flickering lights, low-key lighting.

* Audio/BGM: Contrast of a slow, old retro vintage Tamil song playing on a broken radio/tape player during an intense, fast-paced violent situation.

* Action: Gritty, realistic, raw combat using everyday heavy props (biryani handi, heavy tools, or cleavers).

* Trope: High-stakes mystery, sudden dramatic twist, and a signature character reveal at the end.

Film Details:

* Title (Working): KAALAM (Time)

* Genre: Action Thriller / Neo-Noir

* Location: An isolated, dimly lit biryani workshop/store room at 2:00 AM.

* Characters:

1. VEERA (30s): A silent, tired night-shift worker chopping meat with a heavy cleaver. Seems ordinary, but has lethal instincts.

2. GURU (40s): A dangerous, arrogant gangster who walks in with two armed henchmen, searching for a hidden bag.

Script Formatting Requirements:

1. Use industry-standard screenplay format (INT./EXT. LOCATION - TIME, Action blocks, Character headers, Parentheticals, Dialogues).

2. Dialogues must be written in crisp, punchy Tanglish / Tamil (in Roman Script).

3. Include explicit Camera Shot Directions (e.g., LOW ANGLE, TRACKING SHOT, CLOSE-UP, SLOW-MOTION) and BGM sound cues to capture the cinematic Loki vibe.

Story Arc:

* Scene 1 (Hook): Rain pouring outside. Veera working quietly. An old 80s Tamil retro song plays on a crackling radio. Guru and his men break in aggressively.

* Scene 2 (Build-up): High tension interrogation. Guru threatens Veera while retro music continues. Veera remains calm, silently checking his watch.

* Scene 3 (Climax Action): As the song hits its chorus/peak, Veera snaps. Fast, gritty 30-second action sequence where Veera uses surrounding kitchen tools to neutralize the henchmen.

 Scene 4 (Twist Reveal): Veera turns to Guru, pulls out a hidden phone/walkie-talkie, and reveals his true connection to a bigger criminal syndicate. Freeze frame with a blast of heavy synth BGM.*
